Re: United States v. Melissa King, 14 Cr. 7962 (JGK)

June 22, 2015

Dear Judge Koeltl:

The computers at the Coleman Camp (may be the whole compound, as well) are inoperable and have been since last week. The defendant had to prepare a legal document - memorandum, a reply, and a declaration without benefit of counsel, as well as being totally disabled.

I am requesting an extension of time to be able to print these documents and put them in the BOP mail system. As soon as the computers become operable I can print, and copy the three already prepared documents and will execute them and mail them to the court.

The Honorable John G. Koeltl, U.S.D.J.

With all due respect, this extension of time, is a most reasonable request, in light of this most extraordinary of circumstances.

Thanking you in advance for granting these few additional days in order to reply to the government's response.

Respectfully,
Melissa King
